Wanless - Kesler

George algar Wanless & Miss Minnie anna Kesler of Cass were married at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday September 13, 1922 by Rev T. B. Wyand.

Pocahontas Times 9/14/1922

Harry Wanless, of Cass is 91 years old today! He was born on Back mountain, near Cass, in sight of the house where he now resides, on June 18, 1896. He is the son of the late Charless Wanless and Hannah Cassell Wanless.

In 1922 he married a school teacher from Hillsboro, Mary Hill. Harry and Mary Wanless never had children of their own but raised seven foster children. There was no payment for foster children care in those days.

Mr. Wanless spent most of his life farming. He contributes his long life and good health to the outdoors and hard work; as he said, "Farming for a living is hard work and long hours." He did work on public works and for the Cass sawmill for three years before retirement. He was a helper building camp cars, and he also served in World War I.

Mr. Wanless hears very well without the aid of a hearing aid, and until just a year ago could read well without glasses. He says he does have trouble reading now - but still reads some without glasses.

Four years ago he was in an automobile accident, from which, he says, he has never fully recovered. Before that he drove anywhere he wanted to go. Since the accident he limits his driving to the four miles from his home on Back mountain down to Cass and back home. He makes good use of the Senior citizens bus to take him elsewhere. He drives himself to Cass every Sunday to attend church at the Cass United Methodist Church. In the summer months he often drives to Cass to sit with the fellows in front of the Country Store to watch the trains go out, and see the many tourists who visit Cass every year.

Mr. Wanless says he couldn't get along without his next door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cassell, and the Senior Citizen bus.

His wife of fifty-six years died nine years ago, leaving him alone. Mr. Wanless ended our interview with these words, "It's really tough living alone."

We hope to talk with him again on his 100th birthday.

2/16/1911 Pocahontas Times A memorial Tribute

No living person seems to remember a time when a deeply pathetic and much lamented family in our county (this the closing months of 1910.

Among those passing on leaving a name embalmed with all that the hearts of her children and numerous acquaintances can give "their praise and their tears" was Mrs. Mary Frances, relict of the late Col. Stephen Cornelius Pritchard of Dunmore, Pocahontas County, W. Va, the subject of this memorial tribute.

Mrs. Pritchard was born September 20, 1837 in Greenbrier County, W. Va. Her parents the late Alexander and Mrs Mary Susan McAllister were at that time residents of that county. Afterward they moved to Alleghany County and located near Covington where they reared their family of 11 children, whose births occured in the following order; Mary Frances, James Renick, John A, Bettie A, Phoebe A, Susan J, Andrew K, Louisa C., Frank W, Riley M. and Samuel H. of these, 3 are living, James Renick, Phoebe A, and Louisa C. much to their credit be it remembered that Mrs. Pritchard's parents desired their children to be well educated and sent their daughter to the Covington schools and to Ivy Cliff near Warm Springs, where Miss Maria Richards accomplished so much good. Her marriage to Col. Pritchard occurred February 5, 1856, at the Alleghany home near Covington, Ky. James M. Price is believed to have officiated. after their marriage the parties settled at Columbia Furnace, Shenandoah County, Va., where they lived for 4 years, when Col. Pritchard sold his interest in the Columbia Furnace and located at Powel's Fort in the same county and built a furnace there. Very soon after operations began at Powel's Fort furnace, the late war began and the property was raided by the Federals and the buildings burnt, whereupon the family came back to the old Alleghany home, and remained there until peace was declared. When Col. Pritchard took his family to Frederick County, the old Pritchard home, and remained there about 2 years. The prospects of making a living were so discouraging that the Col. returned to Bath, lived 2 or 3 years the Dean farm about 5 miles west of the Warm Springs, and then in 1873 came to Dunmore.

She became a member of the Baptist Presbyterian Church at Dunmore June 20, 1874. The Church for the time being, not having a pastor, the Rev. M. D. Dunlap, of academy, was present, preached and moderated the session upon that memorable occassion.

Some years later Col. Pritchard became a member of the same Church whose much lamented death occurred June 1, 1899.

They were the parents of 11 Children born in the following order: Charles Edward, James Franklin, Mary Susan, Robert Martin, Margaret Elizabeth, John William, anna Virginia, Ella, Cornelia Frances, Stephen Archibald, Samuel Reece, and Frederic Carter. 2 of the daughters, Mary & Margaret & 2 of the sons, Robert & Stephen are dead. The survivors are all residents of Dunmore and vicinity.

The Writer of this memorial tribute cherishes special affection for her memory as that of a friend when friends were needed. Yet he deems it expedient to specify the reason therefor. During the 25 years of our acquaintance, the Writer has been reminded of so much that appears in the character of Mrs. Pritchard. Among the traits of a model woman that chapter says "She openeth her mouth with wisdom and on her tongue is the law of kindness; She looketh well to the ways of her household and eateth not the bread of idleness. Favour is deceitful and beauty is vain but a woman that feareth the Lord she shall be praised." Proverbs 31: 25-31.

This memorial tribute will be closed by extracts from a letter written by one of her most attached friends ever since her coming to Dunmore. a testimonial more appropriate is rarely attainable for a purpose such as the one in view:

"It was Christmas morning, I had gone to church with my niece and while they were in Sabbath school I went to spend the hour with my old friend. as always she had a welcome for me. She sat by an open fire holding on her lap a little grand-daughter, in reply to my inquiry she said she was as well as usual. She has always been a frail looking woman and after suffering many attacks of illness, she of course grew more fragile; but this morning I thought she looked as well as usual, but later, after several of the absent members of her family had come in and she had greeted them in her gentle kindly way I noticed she grew very quiet, a tiny crimson spot burned on each cheek and she sat looking in the fire seemingly unconscious of the chatter around her till I arose to bid her goodbye. That evening she seemed to grow so weak she had to be almost carried to her bed, requiring repeated doses of a stimulant to keep up the heart action. She seemed to grow steadily weaker and in spite of the tenderest care of her children and the most careful efforts of her physician, she quietly "fell on sleep" wednesday afternoon, December 28, 1910. She was conscious until the end whilst she left no testimony at the last, there is no one who can doubt her entrance into the heavenly home. She had lived the life of one who followed Christ, accepting him as her Savior, and there was no need of words to assure us that all was well in the end. She was faithful, consciously so, to every duty in life, as wife, mother, neighbor and friend; charitable toward the faults of others, she was loved by all who knew her. I have never heard any one speak an unkind word of her. She was a Christian in the truest sense of the name."

B of L F & E Conducts Funeral of Brother

The funeral of William Ellis Baxter, the young Pennsylvania engineer who was found dead in bed at his rooming house at 1720 South Calhoun St. last Saturday, was held yesterday (June 7) afternoon, the Rev. Church officiating. Hundreds of friends of the deceased were in attendance at the last sad obsequies.

Mr. Baxter came to Fort Wayne from his former home, Marlinton, Pocahontas County, W. Va. and accepted employment as fireman with the Pennsylvania Co. December 1, 1902. Being a good, upright, sober and industrious young man, he proved his worth to the company and was promoted to engineer last November 26th. By close attention to his work, and being of a sober, saving disposition, Mr. Baxter had accumulate quite a nice bank account besides his insurance in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Fireman and Enginemen which is a great credit to his memory. The interment occurred in the B of L. F and E private lot in Lindenwood Cemetery. The beautiful ritualistic work of the brotherhood was witnessed by over 150 members of the lodge besides the large concourse of sorrowing friends who gathered to pay their last sad tribute of respect to the memory of one who will be missed in our city. R.

Mrs Margaret Jane Cassell Bayter was born on March 29, 1853; died on October 30, 1940, aged 87 years and 7 months. On Thursday afternoon the funeral service was held from her late home at Onoto, in the presence of a large congregation of friends and relatives, by Rev. O. N. Miles, assisted by Rev. J. C. Wood, Rev. J. T. Shaw, Rev. A. B. Williford and Rev. R. H. Skaggs. Interment in the family plot in the Edray Cemetery. Twenty four years ago to the day her son, Harry Bayter was buried.

Mrs. Bayter was a daughter of the late Samuel and Eliza Valentine Tomlinson Cassell, of Back Alleghany. Of her father's family, one survives, Mrs Mary ann Tallman of Stony Bottom.

On February 16, 1882 she was married to George Bayter who died on April 5, 1908. To this union were born the following children:
Mrs Elmer Duncan, Mrs F. C. Pritchard
Frank C. Bayter, Mrs. E. C. Smith
Mrs Charles Knox and George Harry Bayter.

Her stepchildren are; Mrs Birdie Slear, Adam O. Bayter and Mrs Georgia Harper; also Ellis Bayter, Mrs James Patterson and J. W. Bayter now deceased.

Early in life she dedicated her heart and life to the Lord Jesus Christ accepting Him as her Savior, and lived a true, consistent Christian life to the end.

Her passing marks the close of a long and constructive life, adorned with charity, sympathy and deep understanding. Her most pretentious and lasting monument is her perpetual contribution to these Christian graces to her family, her Church, her community and to all with whom she came in contact. Hers was the priceless ability to weave something of her sterling character into the very fabric of those around her. She led her flock not knowing they were being led.

"Her Children arise up and call her blessed."
"Let her own works praise her name in the gates"

I cannot say, and I will not say
That she is dead — She is just away!
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand.
She has wandered into an unknown land.
and left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since she lingers there.
And you — O you, who the wildest years
For the old time step and the glad return, —
Think of her faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here;
mild and gentle, as she was brave, —
When the sweetest love of her life she gave
To simple things; — where the violets grow
Blue as the eyes they were likened to,
The touches of her hand have strayed
as reverently as her lips have prayed:
Think of her still as the same I say:
She is not dead — she is just away!

In Memory

Mrs. Alice Wooddell died at her home near Nottingham, a few moments before one O'clock Monday Night, November 19, 1923.

She was a daughter of Samuel Cassell who preceded her to the grave forty years ago.

Mrs. Wooddell was 67 years, 6 months and 22 days old. Forty five years ago she was married to John F. Wooddell. For years she had been in failing health, but would never complain nor give up. About three months ago her suffering was so great she gave up to go to a hospital. While there she was given an operation, but she had gone too far for any good to be done, and she was brought home. She was at home eight weeks until her death. Her sufferings were borne with great patience. She said she cared for nothing on earth; all that she cared for was for her Savior to take her home.

Mrs. Wooddell is survived by her aged husband, five sisters, Mrs. Wanless of Wanless; Mrs. Swink, of Cass, Mrs. Tallman of Stony Bottom, Mrs. Baxter and Mrs. Aldridge of Onoto; and one brother, Mr. Cassell of Cass.

The funeral service was conducted at her home by her pastor from the words, "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes", after which the remains were taken to the Wanless graveyard, where her father and mother and one sister are laid to rest.

George M. Sheets

It becomes our painful duty to record this week the death of one of this county's best men and foremost citizen. George M. Sheets passed away at his home on the head of Swago Creek, aged 69 years.

His whole life has been passed in Pocahontas County. He was twice married. His first wife was Margaret Ratliff, a daughter of Andrew Ratliff. To them a large number of children were born. Among his children surviving him are Samuel, John, Griffith, Mrs Mary Geiger, miss Kate Sheets, Mrs. Carrie Gragg, Mrs. Huldah Cassell, Mrs. Bessie Adkison. His first wife preceded him to the grave many years ago and his second wife was a miss Phoebe Adkinson, daughter of the late John E. Adkison. From this union there is one son, Edward Sheets.

Most of the life of the deceased was passed at his home on Back Alleghany, but some years ago he bought a farm on the head of Swago Creek and lived there until his death.

He had been a member of M.E. Church, South for many years but on his removal to Swago he transfered his membership to the Methodist Episcopal church in which faith he died.

He had been ailing for a long time with something like Bright's disease and later he had suffered a paralytic Stroke from which he died Monday, February 28, 1916.

Mrs. Mary ann Cassell Tallman

Mrs Mary ann Cassell Tallman died at her home at Stony Bottom, January 7, 1941 of a heart ailment aggravated by flu.

She was the last of the family of 7 girls and one boy, Children of Samuel and Eliza Tomblson Cassell of Back Mountain.

Mrs Tallman was born at the old Cassell home on the Greenbier River above Cass, July 19, 1851, before the days of the Civil War.

Some years later her father and family moved upon Back Mountain to the farm now owned by Wilbur Cassell where Mr. Cassell and his family and later Mrs Tallman and her husband Cyrus Tallman and sons claimed homes from the then vast forest.

Great and varied were the experiences of this pioneer lady. She learned lessons not from books but from the great wide open spaces, lessons that nature and The Book of books can teach.

Mrs Tallman was never willing to sit idle and contented when one was in distress or needed assistance but always willing to lend a helping hand.

Mrs Tallman was a life long member of the Methodist Church and the mother of ~~5~~ five Children, ~~2~~ two of whom survive, Mrs Frank Arbogast of Dupont and John Tallman of Cass, also numerous Grand and great Grand Children and a host of friends and other relatives.

The funeral was conducted from the Wanless Church by Rev. J. I. Shaw of the Cass Presbyterian Church. Interment in the Wanless Cemetery.

"But a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates."

Willing hands and steady when there's any need;
Loving heart and ready for some kindly deed;
Happy smiles & pleasure filling hearts with cheer;
What a cherished treasure you were Mother Dear.
